MEANS SMILES IN COURT; SURE

A story of international adventure—not of romance, but of the preying upon of helpless woman by a band of crooks who piled their trade among the capitals of Europe and at the gaming tables of Monte Carlo—will be developed in the trial, it is expected. This story revealed Mrs. King as the dupe of unacropulous social gangeters before Gaston Means came into her life.

I heard the about as was straight, She fell straight beckward. She never made any outcry. She never spoke a word."

Search of Apartments.

Investigation of Means' story, and of his reason for bringing Mrs. King to North Carolins, was started in Chicago and led to New York. Means' apartments in New York were Mrs. King was killed on August 29 last at Blackwe.der Spring, a lonely apot near Concord. Means, who started in her apploy as a private detective and was styled her "business manager," was the sole eye-witness to the killing.

manager," was the sole eye-witness to the killing.

Though friends of the woman said, later, she siways had feared to handle firearms; it was stated she and others had gone to Blackweider Spring to practice target shooting. Suspicion was aroused, and friends and relatives in other sections of the country refused to accept the finding of the local inquest—a verdict of death accidentally self-infilicted by a pistol shot.

In Chicago, where the body was taken by Means, a post-mortem examination was ordered. Paul and William Roblinson, brotagers of Mrs. King, visited Chicago and conferred with Coroner Hoffman, : at told them that in their opinion death was due to a gusshot wound inflicted by another person.

Captain Bingham and Afton Means came running at his call. Together they lifted Mra. King into their car and sped back to town. Means continued:

"I was five feet away at the time she was shot. She was right by the tree, just where I had put the pistol. I was at the spring, standing on the leaned over and patted the child's head.

The special venire is summoned to appear at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Court was adjourned until that time.
